SHELTON STATE RECEIVES AWARD

Shelton State has received notification that its proposal for an Alabama Office of Voluntary Citizen Participation minigrant has approved.

The minigrant which will not exceed $250 must be used to provide volenteer management training in West Alabama during the first six months of 1986.

The grant will be administered through the Building Better Boards for Community Organizations program of the college, according to the director of the program, Lucy Kubiszyn.

"The college plans to use this grant to hold a one-day workshop designed to train volunteers in fund raising," Kubiszyn said. "We have found that fund raising is the number one problem of nonprofits in this area. We have held workshops previously in designing effective fund raising plans. With this workshop we will actually train volunteers how they can be most effective in a fund raising effort."

CHRISTMAS SCHEDULE

All classes at Shelton State Community College will be dismisssed on Friday, December 20, for Christmas holidays. Classes will resume on Monday, January 6, 1986.

TECHNICAL TALK

A few openings remain in some of the programs at the Technical Division of Shelton State, according to registrar Rebecca Sumner. Final enrollment figures for Winter quarter will not be available until the end of next week. However, enrollment seems to level as compared to last year.

Aaron Bell, instructor of auto mechanics at the Technical Division, is currently at Bessemer Technical College in Bessemer teaching the Eight Day Electronics Course.

FROM THE FIRE COLLEGE

The Alabama State Fire College will sponsor the National Fire Academy in Birmingham on December 17-18. This is a follow-up to the first National Fire Academy School which was held in Tuscaloosa in November.
